

Besser. Berger

Truck 13,6m long – loading pattern for BlueSun

|                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type of vehicle:                   | Truck Tautliner trailer type XL (13,60 m long / 2,40 m width)                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Loading plan for storing position: | 30x EURO pallet 120 x 80 cm                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Capacity loading weight:           | max. payload in case of semitrailer Berger ecotrail : max. 26.000 kg                                                                                                                                                   |
| Tie down:                          | not applicable – positive locking                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Weight Limit control:              | Maximum driving axle weight of 11,5 t. must be observed.It's illegal to carry more than 11,5 t. on the driving axle.Sender must kindly reorganize the pallets in case any axle is over the limit |

Please seal loaded trucks

